

OLIVIA BRANDON

REAL-LIFE ARTS SUPERHERO

Starting in third grade, 9 year-old Olivia Brandon knew she had a talent for the arts and loved doing art. Her elementary school art teacher, Mr. Peake, helped Olivia prepare her own art to inspire others to do art and share why she enjoys it.

To show her appreciation to Mr. Peake, Olivia knew she had to make something to give to him. Olivia used her baking talent making various sweets for Mr. Peake and set it as a goal to recognize the positive impact he had on her every year thereafter.

Way to go Olivia; way to use your talent for baking to help the arts by recognizing your amazing and impactful art teacher, Mr. Peake.
