

TARAN AND CALLIOPE TIEN

REAL-LIFE ELDERLY SUPERHERO

Taran and Calliope Tien wanted to find their own special way to reach out to their elderly neighbor during the coronavirus pandemic, so that is exactly what they did.

The two siblings from Columbus, Ohio, who have a Talent for playing classical music, put on their best clothes, grabbed their musical instruments, and from a safe distance on the porch, put on a half-hour performance for their neighbor.

“It was also a good way to remember the value of connection,” Taran and Calliope’s mother said. “Especially at a time like this when everyone feels disconnected.”

Obtained from publicly available source: https://www.huffpost.com/entry/ohio-kid-cellists-porch-performance-coronavirus_n_5e711ee8c5b6eab7793dcf69

Photo: The Columbus Dispatch/Screenshot from <https://youtu.be/gAosJREnr-U>

TARAN & CALLIOPE’S SUPERPOWER EQUATION

TARAN & CALLIOPE TIEN,
AGES 9 & 6

CELLO

MY TALENT

MY HEART

PLAYING A PORCH CONCERT
FOR AN ELDERLY NEIGHBOR

MY SUPERPOWER!