

Human Rights Buzzwords

Entitled: Believe yourself to deserve a privilege just because of who you are

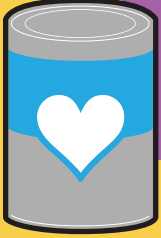

Fundamental: Basic; of main importance

Lobby: Try to influence a politician or public official on an issue

Oppression: Cruel treatment over a long period of time

Access: The right to use something

Slavery: Treating a person as property and forcing them to work without pay

Protest Music

Protest songs have helped people voice their disagreement with the government and institutions of their countries for hundreds of years. Take some time today to explore protest songs. We've suggested some to get you started.

Creedence Clearwater Revival

Janelle Monae

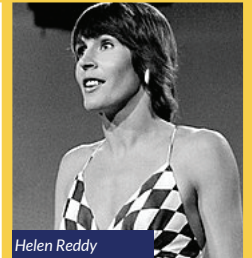

Public Enemy

"Get Up, Stand Up" Bob Marley
"Say It Loud – I'm Black And I'm Proud" James Brown
"Free Nelson Mandela" The Specials
"Fight the Power" Public Enemy
"Alright" Kendrick Lamar
"I Am Woman" Helen Reddy
"Fortunate Son" Creedence Clearwater Revival
"War" Edwin Starr
"What's Goin' On" Marvin Gaye
"American Idiot" Green Day
"Not Ready to Make Nice" The Chicks
"Sunday Bloody Sunday" U2
"Freedom" Beyonce featuring Kendrick Lamar
"Americans" Janelle Monae

Marvin Gaye

Helen Reddy

U2

There are so many wonderful songs that people have used to express their concerns. What are some of the protest songs you've found?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____